RICHARD WEILAND

In the fall of 1963 a tragic accident befell one of our classmates, Richard Weiland. He was hospitalized for several months and is now at home, where he is resuming his studies. Richard, though you won't be graduating with us this year, we look forward to seeing you completing your studies and graduating soon.

We want to dedicate our 1965 Chieftain to you Richard, to show you that we are thinking of you and will continue to hold a warm spot in our hearts for you for many years to come.

As we look back at our years at WHS, we will recall many wonderful times and events. By dedicating our Chieftain to you, we hope to include you in all of these memories.

CLASS HISTORY

We first entered the doors of Waconia High School as Freshmen in September of 1961. Doors there were, but there were rooms without windows, rooms that weren't rooms yet, and a state of general confusion that was the result of a not quite completed remodeling job.

Our Sophomore year is one of many memories--it was Mr. Brook Peterson's first year as principal, and Mr. Robert Mayer's first year as superintendent. We, with our newly acquired driver's licenses, sponsored a car wash one cold Fall day--not many cars but a lot of frozen tennis shoes. In the Spring we sponsored a Beatnik Dance, which turned out to be one of the best attended dances WHS was to see for a long time.

Our Junior year is one not many of us are likely to forget--the main event being our Prom. The theme was "Evening of Wine and Roses," and the work we put into it was truly worth it when we saw the results. The Banquet was a delicious meal served, for the first time in several years, at school. The Prom Dance was an evening to remember. We danced to the music of "The Saints" and the background of tinkling water from our fountain.

Our Senior year was perhaps the most important, it was a year of decisions about our future and for many of us our final preparation for our occupations. Activities seemed to center around that one main event--our Graduation. As the piano struck the first chords of the recessional, and we began our final march down the familiar aisle, inwardly a tear was shed for the many memories the walls of Waconia High School will hold for us always.

ACTIVITIES

HOMECOMING FESTIVITIES

Homecoming is the magic word which recalls old friends, orange colored leaves, pretty girls, and last but not least, football. Waconia's Homecoming festivities opened Thursday night, October 1, with the highlight of the evening being the Coronation. The band and cheerleaders were joined in the school song by an exuberant student body. The excitement was at its peak as the queen candidates and their escorts were introduced by Student Council President, Don Krautbauer. This year's queen candidates were: Janice Schneider, Susan Musgjerd, Dorothy Luepke, Gloria Goetze, and Carol Chan. Tension grew as the 1963 Queen arose from her throne to crown the new queen. Amid cries and cheers Queen Carol Chan took over the '64-'65 reign.

Friday night's game was the biggest event of all. The Chief's marched down the field for a Homecoming victory.

A total of eight cars were entered in the half-time parade. Queen Carol led the parade and her royal court followed. Waconia students were certainly proud of their lovely Queen Carol.

The team won the Homecoming game and fulfilled the slogan: "Here Lies "U" High."

The Homecoming Dance held afterwards proved to be a big success.

"Oh no," cries new Queen Carol.

The "Terry Rand Orchestra" played for the Homecoming Dance.

This type of dancing was brought about by the Beatles, who had a new Liverpool beat. Sue and Gary are doing the Baldie Stomp, while Ginni and Larry are doing the Jerk. Other popular dances are the swim, the Frug, and the Watusi. Local teens gathered at the Paradise Ballroom in Waconia on Wednesday nights, and again on Sunday afternoons to dance to one of the local bands; it was either the Underbeats with "Sweet Words of Love," or the Chancellors of "Little Latin Lupe Lu" fame. The typical teen wardrobe consisted of a Madras shirt, white jeans, a flirt skirt and a blazer. Boys all owned a gant shirt, white jeans, "baldie shoes," and a Madras belt. A person was "gear" or "Fab" if he or she had long hair, went to the teen dances, and wore "Baldie clothes." There is no doubt that this years Seniors were the best dressed and the "hippest" to the latest fads.
