It's in the details
and all around...

What if these walls could master sound?
Would they ring the bells of years long past?
Or of records broken by those too strong and fast?
Though perhaps the walls wouldn't talk at all;
Simply remember the students who once stood tall.

For twenty years of dreams and fears, we have been and will forever be Wildcats.

2015

Human life hinges on the concept of time: when we eat, when we sleep, when we make plans with friends or family. Our entire existence is controlled by a twenty-four hour design with no certain end.

So what would possess us to devise such a thing?

The simple answer is organization. In order to communicate, interact, and get things done more efficiently, we have become a time-driven culture obsessed with the now.

The challenge today is to live in the now instead of posting about the now. Memories come from experience, and there is no better place for that than high school.

So put your best foot forward, participate, and make some memories, because the now only happens once.

Newfound Success

Spirit in the hallways and on the field

Right: Waconia's defensive line tackles wide receiver Charlie Lacy to stop Holy Family's advancement up the field. Waconia won the game 55-36, the first Homecoming victory since 2010, when the Wildcats defeated Grand Rapids in a non-conference match up.

Above: The cheerleaders await the rush of the football team as players make their way through the Wildcat tunnel and onto the field. These girls had reason to cheer throughout the night as the Wildcats scored more than fifty points, the most points scored in twelve years.

Left: As Holy Family's center Brennan Bornhost prepares to snap the ball, junior lineman Alex Schmidt prepares to break through the offensive line. In the final minutes of the game, a mandatory storm delay was called by the officials, extending play by over an hour.

Left: Senior Taylor Kray proudly holds the game ball while running onto the Bayview track along with Sidney Zieske and seniors Jordan Stipek and Alora Rands. Twenty-five years ago, the cross country team began the tradition of running the game ball from St. Bonifacius to Meuwissen Field to start the game. This pregame tradition was altered and became a run around Lake Waconia and then abandoned for several years. Just last year, the cross country team brought back the full run from St. Bonifacius.

Left: Juniors Keller Billstrom, Trace DeLange, and Jacob Rankin strike a pose to show off their spirited attire. On Thursday, students were encouraged to wear jorts, ugly sweaters, and hats. The beach-themed dance was held on Friday night after the game.

Above: With the interweaving of traditional activities and the addition of new ones, Homecoming 2014 truly was the same but different.

Left Column: Students wear purple and gold while candidates get dressed up to participate in different activities throughout the Friday of Homecoming week.

Right: Katrina Rinke and Kyle Johnson begin their promenade through the gym. In 1995, the king and queen were driven around the Bayview track for their promenade.

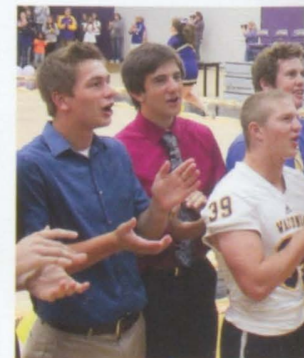

Right: Varsity football players senior Zachary Christians and junior Zachary Bufton perform jumping toe touches with Emily Shaw and other members of the Lakettes. This is the second year that the two teams have performed together.

Right: Candidates Emily Zempel, Hannah Kilian, Rinke, and Shaw react excitedly as Rinke is revealed as queen. Every student in the school was able to vote for one of the five queen candidates.

Fresh Traditions

Pep fest, coronation get crowd fired up

Left: Johnson ecstatically throws his hands up in the air. Each candidate was given a beaker full of clear liquid, and all but the winner's beaker contained just water. A small amount of camp fuel was added to Johnson's beaker. When the candidates simultaneously lowered their lighters to their beakers, Johnson's lit up.

Below Right: Junior Molly Klima, senior Angela Gifford, and the candidates rehearse before the coronation ceremony. The candidates began their day visiting other district schools, introducing themselves, and creating Homecoming excitement.

Memory Makers

Above Left: Some of the WHS faculty show off school colors in a picture from the early 2000s. Mr. David Aeling, Mr. Robert Lindemann, Mrs. Amy Fischer, and Mrs. Kathy Kurtz were all employed when the current building opened for the 1994-1995 school year. They were 24, 29, 25, and 25 years old, respectively, when they began teaching at Waconia High School.

Above Right: Mrs. Pam Melchert holds a sheet in front of a student in order to initiate a short story in French. Melchert has been teaching for twenty-eight years and says that she enjoys it because she gets to "see the same students year after year and is rewarded by their growth." She not only teaches at the high school but Clearwater Middle School as well.

Right: Mrs. Amy Fischer demonstrates a clay technique for her art class. The art classrooms weren't finished when the building opened, so in order to use the kiln, Fischer and her ceramic students were bused to the former Clearwater Middle School building, now Bayview Elementary. Her other art courses were taught in what is now Mr. Jensen's classroom. She didn't move into the new art classroom until after winter break.

Right: Mrs. Mary Ellen Timmers, Mrs. Kathy Hoese, and Mrs. Judy Rademacher are the three staff members who witnessed the opening of the current building. They remember what it was like to keep track of students, staff, and materials without the kind of technology we have today. In 1994, there were fewer than 500 students in grades 9-12; in 2014, the enrollment was 1139. Timmers, the Activities Department administrative assistant, said she loves how "the school chemistry has changed... more diversity and more opportunity for everyone."

Some Teachers and Staff Were Just Meant to Last

Right: Mr. Kim Benson and Mr. Patrick Foley are two of the twelve teachers and staff who were present when the current building opened. Foley, who teaches health and safety education, sees freshmen and sophomores most often in his classroom. Benson sees mainly juniors and seniors and teaches theater, video production, Composition 12, Performance Media, and Advanced Placement Literature courses. Even though Foley and Benson teach two different subjects on opposite ends of the high school building, they have both been teaching for forty-one years.

Right: Mr. Clark Machtemes introduces a new century to his Advanced Placement World History students. He began teaching at Waconia High School when he was 26 years old and said that though he misses the past, he welcomes the technological changes in communication and delivery. Besides teaching, Machtemes enjoys rock climbing, traveling, and performing with his band, Traveled Ground.

Below Left: Mr. Mark Grundhofer, Mrs. Kathy Kurtz, Ms. Sharon Singsaas, and Mr. Tim Sauer comprised the entire math department in the mid-1990s. Only Grundhofer and Kurtz still teach at WHS, and only Kurtz was on staff the first year when the building opened. Grundhofer joined the department at the beginning of the 1995-1996 school year.

Below Right: Principal Mark Fredericksen sits in his new office in the fall of 1994, his first year as principal. Prior to becoming principal, Fredericksen taught social studies and served as an assistant principal in District 110. He also taught at Harris-Lake Park High School in Iowa. During his career, Fredericksen has coached baseball, wrestling, and girls golf as well as served as prom advisor. He has also been a drivers education instructor.

Seniors

The end is nigh.

For the more than 260 members of the class of 2015, this marks the end of a long journey through dimly-lit halls, sitting on plastic chairs, and enduring grueling courses. This marks the end of an era.

Waconia High School has been home to your dreams and hopes and memories for four years, four of the most influential of your life. Each experience is as unique as you are, and the future that awaits you beyond these grounds is as boundless as the cosmos.

The end is nigh. But so is the beginning.

You're so close you can taste it.

Between hammering through the ACT, the SAT, and hours of homework, many of you are involved in clubs, groups, sports, and volunteer work - anything to go the extra mile and get noticed.

But sometimes, the extra mile can fly by a little too fast. You blink, and suddenly it's gone, the end on your doorstep and the best years in your rearview mirror.

There's going to be a lot of things we forget in this race called life. Let's not make these memories some of them.

You're caught in the middle of it all.

Your high school career: it's who you want to be; it's who you are. It's all one big list that you're steadily whittling down, headed to that gleaming, glorious end when you put checks in all your boxes.

You feel so close to the beginning and so far from the end, yet you know that it will all be gone in a flash, the same way that everything else has gone by.

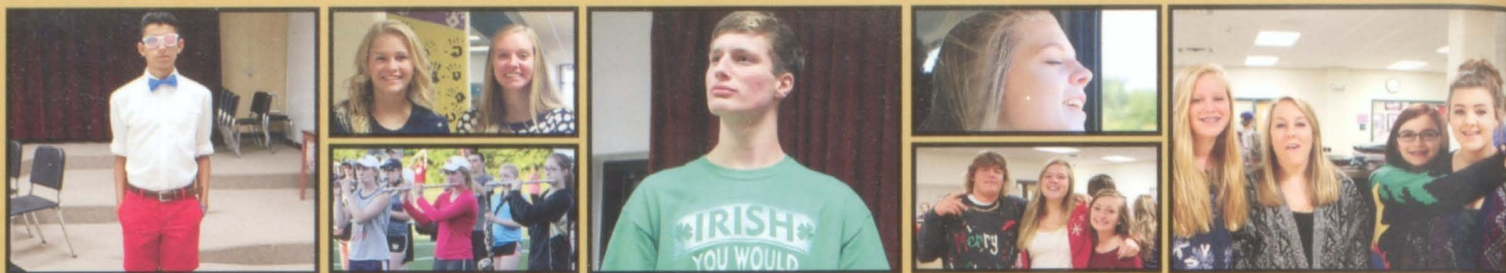

So buckle up and enjoy the ride, because you're not stopping here.

Freshmen

And so it begins.

Your high school career, your next step, your future plans... Everything is coming together and coalescing into a shining beacon of hope for what you can do and what you can be.

But don't let the glow blind you. The end may seem like another lifetime away, but time moves like water, constant and unstoppable.

So step up and face the day, because the sun is rising.

The Name Game

Above: Senior Alexander Bujold puts the finishing touches on a slab mug in his Ceramics I class. Bujold was a Homecoming king candidate, and he plans to attend flight school after he graduates high school. The weirdest thing he has done was jumping through a pile of toilet paper in Walmart, and his favorite experience was when he traveled to Australia. There are thirteen boys named Alexander in the high school. In 2013, it was the eighth most popular boys' name in the United States.

Don't let the familiar names and faces fool you... WHS is home to unique individuals, who participate in a variety of activities.

Right: Sophomore Emma Lohman pours through The Things They Carried, a Vietnam War novel for her English class. According to the Social Security Administration, the name Emma ranked number two on the "Top 10 Baby Names for 2013."

Above: There are eleven girls named Elizabeth, including sophomore Elizabeth Winter. She believes that her generosity sets her apart from others. She has walked a llama and has gone cliff jumping, which she considers the most adventurous thing she has ever done. Nationally, Elizabeth ranked tenth in 2013.

Below: Junior Emily Anderson puts her hands up in an attempt to block a pass. Against Mankato West, she grabbed seven rebounds and seven steals, a team record that contributed to the Wildcats' 96-65 win. In 1997-1998, Emily was the most popular name in America.

Common Names for Uncommon Characters

Above Right: Sophomore Alexander Knutson tackles the next chapter in his novel. Knutson's first name has been wildly popular for centuries, with some of the most famous bearers being Alexander Graham Bell, Alexander Hamilton, and Alexander the Great.

Above Left: Megan Kirsch throws up a peace sign and a stuffed monkey, only one of which was used in an experiment for her physics class. Megan has been a popular name for decades, and there are currently eighteen students with some variation of the name, including the alternate spellings of Meghan and Meagan.

Below: Juniors Laura Welk and Megan Bingham make their way out of the auditorium after a Conservation Club meeting. Bingham participates in golf, FCCLA, and the prom committee.

Most Popular Names at WHS

Megan	Nicholas
Emily	Jacob
Alison	Josh

Trying New Things, Enjoying Nature

Conservation Club

Members Heat up the Ice at Annual Fishing Tournament

Icy Blast

Top Right: Senior Kai Pederson and junior Andrew Donnel huddle in a small fish house waiting for a nibble. Students provided about twenty houses.

Below Far Right: Freshmen Micah Bijou and Benjamin Michlitsch brave the cold, sitting directly on the ice to watch their bobbers. Over 50 people participated, so not everyone could take shelter in a house.

International Club

Thinking Outside of the Box

Far Top Left: Juniors Sarah Schelitzche, Alexandra Krupski, and Katelyn Nenovich show off the shoes they collected. For every ten pairs of shoes donated, a paper cut out was placed around the world.

Top Left: Sophomore Elizabeth Klein works on sorting and pairing the shoes that have been collected so far. International Club exceeded their goal of 1100 pairs of shoes by reaching 1106 pairs. The boys basketball team pitched in to help load the trailer.

Below left: Junior Margaret Brose binds a pair of shoes with a rubber band to help organize the shoes. Soles4Souls was organized in 2006, and their mission is to fight poverty around the world.

Providing a Better Future

Club Sends Food, Shoes to Other Countries

Far left: Juniors Madison Harvala, Sarah Schelitzche, and McKenna Turner add vegetarian flavoring to MannaPack Rice, a food mixture that's safe to transport, simple to make, and culturally acceptable. With the team effort, International Club packed 18,144 meals.

Left: Seniors Madeline Harris, Nathan Glynn, Katrina Rinke, and Jack Pogatchnik laugh while they work, making the repetitive job more fun. They worked for two hours packing meals for people in Haiti.

Below Left: Freshman Grace Edsill ties a red ribbon on the car in the faculty parking lot. The Red Ribbon campaign began in 1985 when friends and family began wearing red ribbons after the death of a drug enforcement agent. The ribbons served as reminder of the destruction of drugs in America. Below Middle: Sophomore Sydney Valenta dresses up in comfy clothes for "Living Drug Free Is No Sweat" day. The fun dress up days raised awareness of red ribbon week, held Oct. 23-31.

Below Right: Senior Meghan Niegoda signs up for the pledge to Celebrate My Drive. Students had the opportunity to pledge to safe driving throughout the week and a chance to win a grant and a concert.

SADD Warms Students' Days with Winter Activities

Warm Messages

Top Right: Sophomore Clara Kuerschner hangs up a snowflake on a randomly selected locker to brighten someone's day. Each snowflake had a poem about how special each person is and a note telling that person to go to the guidance office to receive a special treat.

Below Right: Seniors Heather Slice and Alecia Alto hold signs telling students to wear their seat belts. This annual activity raised seat belt awareness for safe driving.

Far Right: Senior Colleen Nazzaro manages the Olaf Gram table, helping senior Emily Shaw send candy to a friend. This event was new this year and was free to anyone who wished to participate. Student received kind messages and Hershey's Kisses and Hugs.

Art Honor Society Members Volunteer Their Time and Talent

Far Left: Sophomore Elizabeth Johnson begins sketching. Last fall, Art Honor Society was contacted by the Waconia Hockey Association and asked to create a mural at the ice hockey rink. Mrs. Amy Fischer created an image, which the Waconia Hockey Association board approved.

Left: Sophomore Lauren Dirnberger sketches the outline for the Waconia city logo. Other designs in the hockey rink included "Home of the Wildcats" and silhouettes.

Left: Breeggemann, Johnson, and sophomore Katherine Livermore trace the outline. They began working on the project in the fall and continued into the beginning of the hockey season. They planned to create a mural of a wildcat in March and hoped to finish mid-April.

Middle Top: Senior Harley Reif paints the words "The Memory Project." Photos of children in India were sent to the art club. Members then recreated the image in a medium of their choice and sent them back to India.

Members Take Time to Plan Projects

Planning Ahead

Top Right: K. Stangret, Thorpe and sophomore Alison Millerbernd, Elling junior Trista Kottke, and senior Madelynn Lage make snowflakes at the winter party, a bonding night for the 22 members.

Bottom Right: Sophomores Evalana Burroughs and Sylvia David present their project on the health benefits of cooking at home versus dining out to residents at Good Samaritan.

Far Right: Juniors Marri Saunders, J. Stangret, and Laura Farlow practice their script before they present to the judges. Their project advised teens on how to maintain a healthy lifestyle through a balance of sleep, exercise, and diet.

Student Council Student Council Hosts and Helps

Far Left: Sophomore Elizabeth Kern and junior Makarena Faundez Amigo select toys for the eleventh annual Waconia Toy Drive. Students raised $1,730, and council members bought toys and took them to city hall. The toys were donated to families in Waconia and Cologne.

Left: Junior Tess Servin distracts fellow junior Michael Cervony while he donates blood during the second annual MLK Blood Drive. Over 100 students signed up to donate.

Far Left: Juniors Ryan Kruchten and Keller Billstrom encourage everyone to visit the council's photo booth at the 2014 Relay for Life. The council's team, Council Against Cancer, raised $1,015 through individual sponsorships and a contract with the Carver County Fair Board to clean the grandstand area.

Student Spirit Council Encourages Excitement in Peers

Yearbook Staff Looks to Past for Inspiration

Top Right: Senior Lydia Weinand tracks yearbook sales. This poster was revised on a daily basis or when a student purchased a yearbook.

Club Uses Metal, Might, and 3D Printer to Engineer Robot

Middle: Senior Faith Morse creates parts for the robot using the school's 3D printer, the only one in the school district.

Breakfast Book Club

*Book Club
Promotes Conversation, Camaraderie*

Top Right: Juniors Jessica Stangret and Samantha Nicklaus discuss the book The Here and Now, a Sci-Fi book about a girl who goes through a time vortex to escape a future blood plague. The group conversed about the book while enjoying snacks and drinks. Participants had roughly one month to read each book before the meeting. Many members borrowed books from the library or friends, and some bought them from book stores.

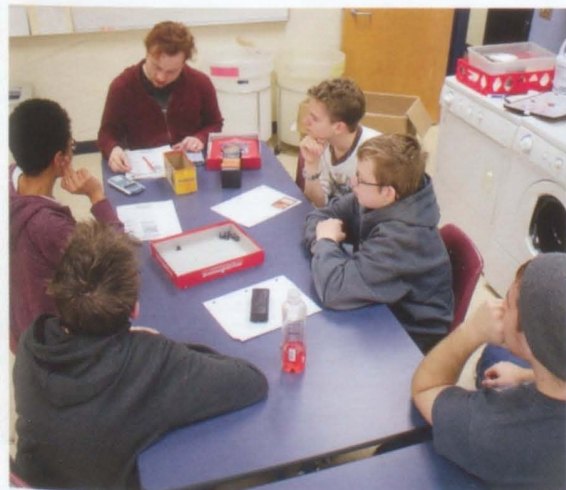

Top Left: Senior Alecia Alto shares her thoughts about the book The Kitchen House. The group had a lot of comments and questions about this book.

Bottom Left: Junior Nana Ntiriwaa-Berkoh expresses her feelings about The Kitchen House. This book was well-liked because it was different and interesting.

Bottom Right: Juniors Mikayla Bjerke and Margaret Brose pose a question to the group. Members met seven times throughout the year.

Tactical Games Club

*Members Play
Mix of New and Classic Games*

Far Left: Group members play Dungeons and Dragons, the best-known and best-selling role playing game.

Right: Senior Garrett Loper and juniors Garrett Williams and Justin Rogers select which game to play. This is the first thing they do each weekly meeting.

National Honor Society

Right: Senior Hannah Niesen plays checkers with a resident at Westview Acres. Twenty-eight members traveled to Good Samaritan Society and Westview Acres on MLK Day.

Far Right: Senior Madeline Harris and juniors Sarah Weisbecker and Madelyn Stangret serve lemonade at the Relay for Life's Survivor Dinner. This is the third year that NHS members have participated.

Right: Senior Madison Heckmann plays Uno at Good Samaritan Society. The visit lasted around an hour, and it was difficult to convince some students to leave.

Middle Right: Seniors Jera Zellmann and Sophia Steinbrueck interact with the residents. Zellmann's favorite part was the woman she played with. They shared an inside joke while they played Crazy Eights.

Far Right: Juniors Dana Hatfield and Madison McCabe scoop ice cream, which melted because of the heat.

Peer Mentors Help the Incoming Freshmen Adjust

Wildcat Mentors

Right: Seniors Bradey Kamish, Avery Talton, Anna Schmitt, and Katrina Rinke help the Youth Frontiers leaders, a group with the vision to change the way kids treat each other, demonstrate the human chair. Throughout the Respect Retreat, the peer mentors lead approximately 250 freshmen in games, small groups, and conversations.

Fashion Forward

Above: Senior Katherine Humphrey scrubs her hands free of clay in her Ceramics class, casually clad in leggings. Leggings are a staple in most girls' wardrobes.

Above: Junior Carolyn Schmieg shows off a flannel shirt and Timberland boots, two articles of clothing that are very much in fashion this year. In fact, students participated in the unofficial "Flannel Friday."

Are You Going Vintage or Viral?

Right: Timmers rocks a mullet as she sits at her typewriter. Rod Stewart, Paul McCartney, and David Bowie all sported mullets at one time. In 1994, the Beastie Boys recorded "Mullet Head."

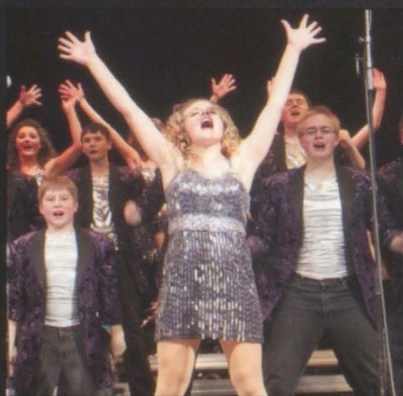

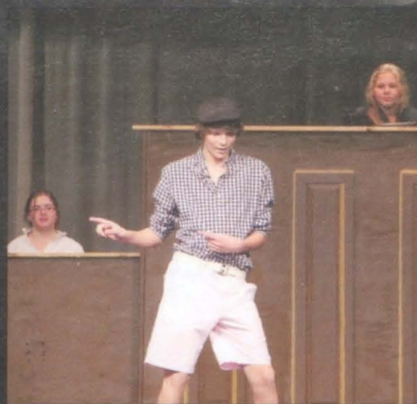

Left: Juniors Joshua Rands, Jacob Rankin, Ryan Kruchten, Trace DeLange, and Keller Billstrom reveal their brightly patterned and aesthetically pleasing socks beneath khaki pants. These Biotech Engineering students wear this combination every Thursday.

Time Marches On

Through experiences and hardships, the 2014 marching band bonded, becoming a cohesive unit. During band camp at St. John's University, members grew closer together through punishments - like running - and enjoying simple things, specifically the ice cream. Members became invigorated when Mr. Snyder yelled, "Orange Whip," a reminder to return to their spots at the beginning of the show.

Members faced obstacles throughout the season: not placing as high as the 728 Cadets, enduring rude audiences, and having technical difficulties with the violin's speaker while in the judging zone. Despite all these, they triumphed.

Winning the People's Choice Award at the Alexandria Vikingland Band Festival was a season highlight. Members realized that winning wasn't everything; they could be proud of themselves for performing a great show that the audience enjoyed.

Above: After spending three days at St. John's University, the band performs a final run-through of the 2014 show before returning to Waconia. They wore white shirts, which has been a tradition for many years.

Above: Juniors Margaret Brose, Taylor Liebsch, Isabel Lieb, and Tanner Treichel, members of the American squad, march proudly to create a positive impression on the audience. The band earned Grand Champion sweepstakes in Buffalo and Rochester.

Above: The color guard follows the American squad during the first performance of the season. The show progressed from mournful and sorrowful to joyous, exemplified by changes in the music and through the actions of the band members.

Above: Senior Mitchell Taylor, one of four drum majors, conducts the trumpet and trombone sections. Taylor said road obstructions were the hardest part of his job due to the fact that he couldn't see them while walking backwards. Taylor and other members hit the streets throughout Minnesota and in Chicago.

Above: The low brass section marches through the entire band to get to the front. They bonded by designing shirts and sharing snacks on the bus prior to a performance. At the Vikingland Band Festival in Alexandria, Minnesota, the band earned first place in Class AAA.

Left: Freshman Macrae Fleck, a tenor saxophone player, performs during a show. He was a rookie this year and participated in rookie initiation, which consisted of carrying a pineapple around during band camp.

Above: Jon Rightler, the only baritone saxophone player in the 1994 marching band, displays good posture during a parade. Like the 2014 band, the 1994 band participated in the Vikingland Band Festival. They earned second place in Class AA, but the percussion and wind sections both received first place recognition.

Above: The band poses in front of the Cloud Gate, more commonly known as the Bean, in Chicago, Illinois. On the Fourth of July, they performed in two parades and later went to the Navy Pier to watch the fireworks. The band was also featured at the Taste of Minnesota, which was held at the Carver County Fairgrounds due to extensive flooding at Harriet Island in St. Paul.

Dia de Los Muertos: Raising and Praising the Dead

Above: Band members hold their poses at the beginning of the show. As the music began, they slowly rose, symbolizing the rising of the dead. It gave a glimpse of what was to come next, and band members enjoyed being able to pick the stance they held.

Above: The band goes into the power stance prior to the opener, "Danse Macabre." The power stance consisted of a halt with feet shoulder width apart. Members then turned their bodies to the right and raised their instruments as they crescendoed.

Above: The color guard members twirl their flags gracefully. They spent many hours practicing with flags and rifles, learning how to work with them. With its colorful costumes, dancing skeletons and a violin soloist who rose from the grave, this show thrilled audiences and judges alike.

Above: The drumline marches in sync, following the windline and low brass sections. Drumline members were given a free pair of ear plugs and were required to wear them during all rehearsals and practices. The rest of the band could also purchase the ear plugs, and many people took advantage of the opportunity.

Fall Musical Sings of Moving On and Discovery

Above: The Delta Nu Sisters help Elle pick out her dress in anticipation of her engagement. They ensured that every detail of her ensemble was picture perfect.

Above: Elle's best friends mourn the end of her relationship with fraternity stud Warner Huntington III. They comforted her with sweet treats and flashy new magazines.

Looking Forward

The cast of about twenty students, two dogs, two directors, and ten crew members rehearsed every night for two short months to perfect this comedic show. They became a close-knit group of friends.

"We spent more time with our 'musical family' than we did with our real families," said senior Christina Miller.

Like all families, there were fighting and stressful moments, but when the final curtain fell, all they felt was love and pride in what they had accomplished.

The show ran Oct. 30 - Nov. 1, and the audience was full to capacity each performance. With many laughs, a few tears, and a standing ovation every night, the musical was a spectacular success.

"The audience roared when we finished the show. It was exhilarating," said senior Jenna Grochow.

Above: Paulette fawns over the new delivery man, Kyle. The hairdresser gained her confidence and ended up marrying her dream guy.

Above: Elle proposes to Emmett at her law school graduation. She realized that she could take her life into her own hands and sculpt her own future.

Flying into the Future

This year's theme, Flight, portrayed the little bird leaving the nest, creating a relatable scene for this year's seniors. The group strived to show the life of the little bird and how important it is to try again if one fails.

Competing in six competitions throughout Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Iowa, Power Company won five grand champion awards and a second runner-up award. The show choir has never won more than two grand champion awards in one season until this year. The dedicated group of performers worked each week to improve the show and to alter the little things to make it the best it could be and their hard work paid off. They ended their season ranked ninth in the nation.

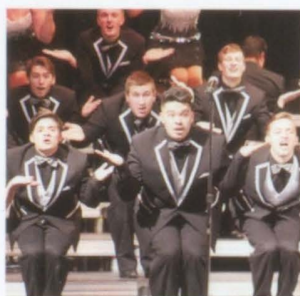

"I love how driven and motivated everyone is this year," said senior Mitchell Taylor. "I couldn't have asked for a better group or show to end my senior year."

Power Company opens the show with "Little Bird." This song featured soloist senior Claire Melchert, who aspired to be like the little birds and fly.

"Little Sparrow" begins as Melchert attempts to fly. Three boys threw her into the air, creating the allusion that she was really flying. She earned "Best Female Soloist" at the Milton Invitational.

The song "Broken Wings" represents the plea for help that is felt after failure. The performers begged for someone to assist them in succeeding in their dreams.

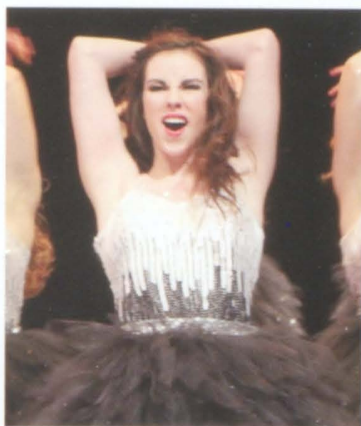

The guys' song, "Fly With Me," brings hope that they can achieve their dreams of flight. It is a song about how making dreams into reality is easier with the help of another person.

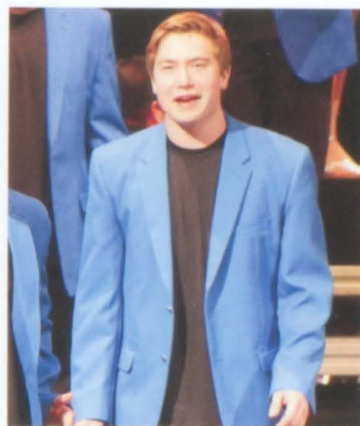

Senior Angela Gifford, junior Allison Girard, and sophomore Montana Checco start the girls' song with "Soar." Adding to the boys' message, the girls explained that an important part of achieving dreams is believing in one's self.

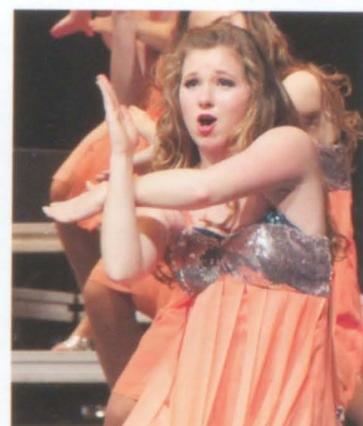

Left: At the end of the opener, eight girls surround Melchert and raise their hands to her, pleading her to try again. Power Company received Grand Champion, "Best Choreography" and "Best Vocals" at the Muscatine River City Showcase, Bloomington Kennedy Gold, Eau Claire Memorial Winterfest, Davenport Great River, and the Mason City Border Bash. They earned Second Runner Up at the Milton Choralation Invitational. Megawatt was named "Best Band" at Eau Claire, Davenport, and Mason City.

What makes this group different?
 "The bond you have with people in show choir is something that you can't find anywhere else. They are friends you'll have for a lifetime, and the experiences that you encounter with them are something never to forget. They are my second family and people I can go to for anything. You get to share your love of music with so many people. The connection that is created through music is incredible and life changing."
 -Senior Heather Slice

What stays the same each year?
 "Even though people are leaving the group and more people are coming in, the sense of family is always there. The sense of security and knowing that you have people you can depend on is always in every group, year after year."
 -Junior Jeffrey Dufresne

What makes this show different?
 "This show is different than others because everything we do is genuine, and we don't hide our emotions. We let what we're feeling pour out on stage together as a family. It's a beautiful experience full of beautiful people."

Power Company Soars to New Heights

Soloist senior Mitchell Taylor joins the girls to reprise "Fly With Me." He was named "Best Male Vocalist" at the Muscatine and Eau Claire competitions.

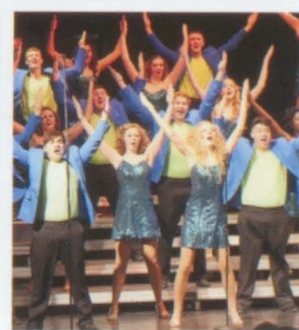

The intensity resolves as soloist Melchert begins the ballad, "Watch Me Soar," which portrayed the little birds gaining the courage to try again.

After the ballad, the girls rip off their coral dresses to reveal blue sparkles, and the boys change their shirts from black to green. The flashy costumes correlated directly with the high-intensity closer.

"Learn To Fly" was originally recorded by the Foo Fighters in 1999. To make it a suitable song for show choir, arranger David Fehr divided it into four choral parts.

The performers use their closer to invite the audience to have the courage to fly. The intense dance break and crazy fast guitar riff made the audience roar.

Twenty Is Plenty

Above: Looking down the main hall, it is easy to see just how much traffic flows through the halls during the six minute passing time. Junior Taylor Liebsch says that congestion is not only a problem in the halls but in the parking lot as well.

Right: Though the majority of the classrooms are closed off by four solid walls, there are still a few that are partitioned by folding screens. Rooms D105 and D101 are two - or one - of them.

Between the Halls and the Classrooms, the Student Body Is Pushing the Seams of the Building

Right: Mrs. Judy Rademacher mans the attendance office during the 1994-95 school year. Changes to the office included the addition of carpeted floors, more cubicles, and more personnel, but according to Rademacher, replacing the hand-written Student Calendar Cards with computer software was the biggest change.

Left: Just days prior to the beginning of the 1994-95 school year, a worker tiles the floor in Mrs. Kurtz's classroom. Upgrades in the original building included white boards and more computer labs. SmartBoards, laptops, and iPads are more recent technological advances.

A Growing Student Body Faces off against an Aging School

Right: The hallway behind the media center holds desks and supplies needed for the beginning of the 1994-95 school year. The building opened with about 600 lockers; now, there are approximately 1250.

Above: Juniors Erin Wagener, Rachael Chapman, and Kelsey Mueller measure the width of a hallway hand-to-hand. In November 2014, District 110 voters passed a $75 million referendum that included switching and expanding the middle school and high school buildings and constructing a third elementary school.

Left: The main hall is the most crowded part of the school with both staircases and another hall leading to part of the science department, the lunch room, and the art rooms.

Left: 2014-2015 front office personnel include Rademacher, Mrs. Mary Ellen Timmers, Mrs. Sandy Wasness, Mrs. Michelle Doerrler, and Mrs. Dianne Breyer. They assist students, faculty and staff, the activities director, and school administrators.

Right: Senior Jason Bullis scopes out his next target during human battleship. Bullis and fellow senior Anthony Shuster were captains for the two teams.

Right: Senior Oliver Smith shows off his moves during the dance competition. He shimmied his way through all three rounds and defeated 33 other competitors who were eliminated by the student council members who judged the contest.

Above: Students participated in ten different activities including the four-legged race, human battleship, ball relay, and a dance competition. The olympics kicked off Winterfest, a collaborative week-long event between Student Council and FCCLA.

Right: Members of the wrestling team grit their teeth and show off their strength during the tug-of-war. They defeated a team comprised of both student council and faculty members.

The Best of the Fest

Winter Olympics features new events

Left: Sophomore Michael Markiewicz smiles as his pie hits Mr. Pohland. Pohland agreed to have a pie thrown in his face by the class that brought in the most money during the Dollars and Cents drive. Pohland's Wind Ensemble class raised the most money, and Markiewicz volunteered to be the lucky student to represent the class.

Below: Senior Matthew Kelchner, junior Evan Kalthoff, and sophomore Smith Sinclair struggle to make their way to the finish line during the finals of the four-legged race. They managed to stay in sync and won the event.

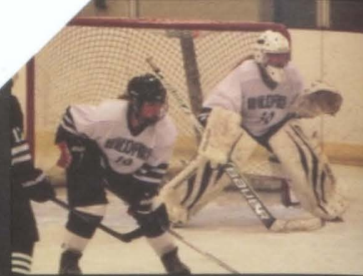

Above: Senior Homecoming candidates Claire Sites and Nathan Glynn cringe as they test their eggs during the egg spladazzle. Members of the court took turns choosing eggs, only some of which were boiled; the rest were raw. Glynn was the one candidate to survive all three rounds without being egged.

Team Perseveres with Same Energy, Different Emotions

Above: Junior McKenna Turner traps the ball during a game against Delano. The Wildcats won 4-0. Turner has been playing soccer since she was a little girl, and her biggest inspiration on the team is senior Katrina Rinke.

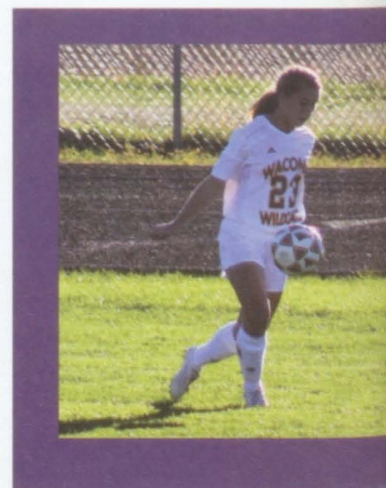

Right: Rinke punts the ball during a game against Mound Westonka. Rinke, an All-Conference selection, was named the team's defensive MVP and was also given the leadership plaque.

Kick to Glory

Right: Senior Emily Zempel stretches to shoot the ball during a game against Mound Westonka. She was named All-Conference and Attacking MVP.

Right: Senior Elizabeth Honnold collects the ball from goalkeeper, senior Marae Vipond, during a game against Delano. Both Honnold and Vipond were named All-Conference Honorable Mention.

One Team, One Dream

The Wildcats ended their season 11-3-2. They set the record for most goals with ten players combining for 49 goals. Junior Jaidyn Zempf was the leading scorer with eighteen goals.

Left: Junior Megan Kirsch dives to tackle a player during a game against Delano. Kirsch has been playing soccer since she was four, and she scored three goals this season.

Middle: Senior Shannon Conway sprints past a defender during a game against Providence. Conway said that coach Kullman was a huge support system for the team.

Heading High

Right: Senior Anthony Shuster weaves through the midfield against Holy Family. Despite goals from seniors Truen Breeggemann and Blake Bender, the Wildcats lost 2-6. At the end of the season, Shuster was named Midfield MVP.

Right: Senior Benjamin Hanson catches the ball while sophomore John Kittleson blocks the goal during a game against New Prague. The Wildcats won 4-0. They finished the season 5-12 after a 1-2 loss to Providence Academy in the first round of section play.

Right: Senior Truen Breeggemann deftly traps the ball against Holy Family. He was named team MVP, Hardest Worker, and was an All-Conference selection. Far Right: Senior Camden Weppner intercepts the ball. He scored the team's only goal in a 1-6 loss to Blake.

Above: Junior Matthew Heil leaves the opponents behind as he dashes down the field with the ball during a game against New Prague. Heil had two shots against the Trojans.

Above: Senior Austin Bruggeman defends the ball against Mound-Westonka. Mellgren scored in the second half. The Wildcats shut out the White Hawks 1-0. Bruggeman was named All-Conference Honorable Mention and Defensive MVP.

After Ups and Downs, Team Ends Season with Same Flair, Different Stars

Hustle and Heart

Left: Sophomore James Kohner prepares to punt the ball. An All-Conference selection, Kohner made six saves against Delano and recorded his third shutout of the season.

Left: Senior Charles Stevenson pulls back during a game against Holy Family. Stevenson was named Forward MVP and was an All-Conference Honorable Mention.

Right: Junior Evan Kalthoff keeps pace with senior Taylor Kray, who has participated in cross country for six years. His personal best is 18:17. Kalthoff was right behind him with a personal best of 18:28.

Middle: Sophomore Zachary Hennen focuses on the finish line of this year's conference meet at Crown. He ran his best time of the year here: 18:03.

Far Right: Eighth grader Kalin McDonough keeps just in front of an Osseo runner at Chaska. McDonough ran a time of 17:16 at this meet.

Right: Senior Mathew Fulkerson pumps his arms and focuses on the last third of the race at Baylor Park. Fulkerson has been on the team for three years. His personal record of 18:19 was set at conference, like many other team members.

Right: Three-year team member senior Neil Heldt sprints to the finish at the conference meet. Heldt showed huge time improvement this year, cutting two minutes off his best time from last season.

Right: Junior Travis Kray hits his stride next to a Delano runner. Kray was able to compete at the Lakeville Applejack Invite, a top-level meet. Only varsity runners were invited to race at this event.

Right: Junior Alexander Carrabre cruises into the conference meet finish. He placed eighth at the section meet and qualified for state, where he finished 62nd out of 176 participants.

Timing It Right

Off and Running

Left: Carrabre jets to the front of the pack at Chaska. He set a new school record in the 5000m, competed at his second consecutive state meet, and earned a new personal record of 16:10 at the conference meet.

Waconia Runners Top the Charts and Their Competitors

Left: The team crouches behind the starting line, waiting to see the official to drop the flag. Waconia has such a large team that they often have trouble fitting into their one designated lane.

Below: Freshman Adam Ebent extends his stride near the finish at Baylor Park. He finished with a 20:27 at this meet but ran an 18:03 later in the season at the conference meet.

Above: Senior Jacob Tereau sticks with the front of the pack at Montgomery. He ran a 19:41 here and earned a personal record of 18:23 later in the season.

Left: Junior Parker Roehl bettered his personal record by 30 seconds this year with a 18:19.

In It for the Long Run

Right: Junior Carissa Dock pumps her arms and focuses on the finish at the Chaska Invitational. A five-year veteran, Dock said one of the biggest changes was competing at new events, including the Lakeville Applejack Invite where they finished tenth out of eighteen teams. At Lakeville, Dock finished with a time of 15:14.

Right: Freshman Claire Goloja keeps her eyes focused on the course at Baylor Park. Goloja ran a time of 19:26 at this meet.

Right: Senior Micalene Aslakson stays ahead of a pack of girls during one of her last races of the season. This year the team had six middle school runners who sometimes ran varsity races, as compared to last year's team which had two.

Right: Eighth grader Madison Denzer gives her all in the last 100 yards at the Waconia Run of the Lakes Invitational, hosted at the Crown College campus. Denzer broke her personal record at the section meet with a time of 16:02.

Right: Senior Brooklyn Baker runs past teammates at Crown College. She ran a 17:45 at the Wright County Conference East Division Championship, finishing fifth. She achieved her personal best for the season at the Victoria Lions Invitational, finishing with a time of 17:17.

Right: Senior Megan Rachey tackles a hill at the very end of the course at Dassel-Cokato. She surprised everyone by cutting ten minutes off her previous best time.

Middle: Senior Alora Rands pushes to the finish at the home meet at Crown College. She placed sixteenth. Rands was the only female state qualifier.

Far Right: Freshman Savannah Drey begins the second mile of the Crown College course. A first-year member, Drey ran a time of 16:50 at the Chaska meet.

Left: Junior Allyson Marrs takes long strides down a hill. She said that she's recently become serious about her running and has seen the team become much more competitive.

Below: Freshman Sidney Zieske focuses on her posture on the Dassel-Cokato course. She said that the additional spots on varsity inspired her to work extra hard.

Above: Baker leads the junior varsity race with senior Alecia Alto right behind her. Due to the large number of girls with varsity potential, Coach Gilbert took the fourteen fastest times and created two varsity rosters. These teams alternated competing on varsity.

Left: Alto stands up straight and pumps her arms to stay just ahead of a Mound Westonka runner yards from the finish line. Although Alto became injured near the beginning of the season, she frequently cut time when she returned to practice, even breaking her personal record with a time of 17:56.

Above: Senior Mikaela Kauma works her way to the finish of a race at Baylor Park. Kauma ran a time of 17:25 at this meet placing 26th.

Younger Faces Take a Turn on Varsity

Run like the Wind

Left: Dock begins the second loop of the Chaska course. She broke 15 minutes this year with a time of 14:49, taking down a decade old school record. Dock was unable to finish her section race deeming her ineligible for state.

Left: Running a 15:27 at sections qualified Rands for state. She felt honored to run at state and believes she left her cross country career on "a perfect note."

Football Program Shows Progress and Pride

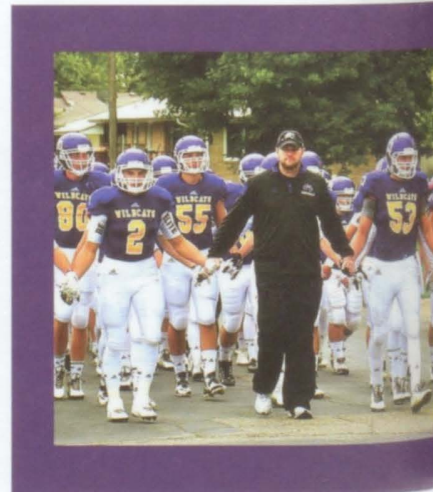

Right: Schmidt and Fleming work together to block an opposing player. The team defeated Dassel-Cokato 28-7 for the first home win since 2011.

Right: The football team chants the Waconia Rouser to the fans. It became a tradition to sing the Rouser after victories to celebrate and show school unity and pride.

Get in the Game

Rising to Triumph

Left: Kruse blocks an opposing player as running back M. Hemze rushes for a touchdown, putting the Wildcats up 7-0 against Dassel-Cokato. Hemze rushed for a total of 825 yards and scored eleven times this season. He was selected All-Conference Honorable Mention.

Left: Senior wide receiver Nicholas Heenie hauls in a pass for a touchdown. He led all receivers this season with 496 yards. On defense, he had two interceptions and two forced fumbles.

Left: As quarterback, Storley drops back to pass against the Chargers. He broke the school record for passing yards and threw for 1,586 this season.

Left: Senior Nathan Glynn completes his sixth catch of the game against Litchfield. He totaled 90 yards in the game and caught one touchdown. Glynn was named Wright County Conference Wide Receiver of the Year, was selected All-Conference, and was awarded the Co-Offensive Skill Player of the Year.

Far Left: Head Coach Sam Baker, M. Hemze, and Christians lead the team in the first Wildcat Walk of the season. The team finished the season with a 4-5 record after losing to Chaska in the first round of section play.

Middle: Senior Matthew Fulford and Martin block opposing players. Martin was named All-Conference Honorable Mention.

Right: Senior Jenna VanDeVelde and junior Madison McCabe crouch in wait, reading where the ball will hit. VanDeVelde tallied 83 kills this season. Middle: Senior Jessica Wolf, an All-State selection, and sophomore Taylor Wolf block the ball. Far Right: Senior Lauren Brettingen starts off the set with a serve against Buffalo. The Wildcats defeated the Bison 3-0.

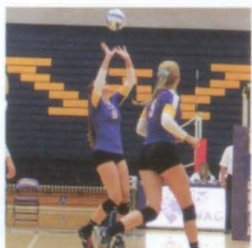

Right: Jessica Wolf sends the ball to the setter, VanDeVelde, during the match against Eden Prairie. The Wildcats began the season 2-1 after defeating Edina and Mayer Lutheran and losing to Eden Prairie.

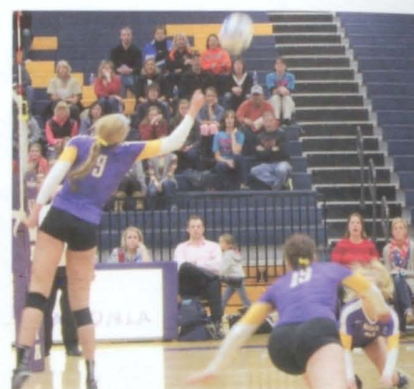

Right: Freshman libero Danielle Pioske digs the ball up to the setter. One of two freshmen on the team, Pioske finished the season with 267 digs and 31 aces.

Right: Jessica Wolf sets the ball for sophomore Taylor Wolf to spike. T. Wolf was named All-Conference Honorable Mention and finished the season with 172 kills and 40 blocks.

Right: Junior Madelyn Stangret passes the ball to the setter. Stangret received the Silver Server Award. The Wildcats finished the regular season 16-12 and entered the section 2AAA tournament as the No. 6 seed. They defeated Mankato East in the first round of section play before losing to Delano 0-3. They ended the season 17-13.

Nothing But the Best

Can You Dig It?

Left: Anna Schmitt serves the ball against New Prague. Waconia won in straight sets. She finished her year with 796 assists and 39 aces and holds the school record for career assists.

Left: Junior Makayla Williams hits the ball against Eden Prairie. She was named All-Conference Honorable Mention and recorded 218 kills this season.

All Out, All Game, All Season

Far Left: Taylor Wolf and Schmitt block against Buffalo. The Wildcats played in two tournaments this season, placing sixth out of 32 teams at the Southwest Minnesota Challenge tournament and going 2-2 in the Apple Valley tournament.

Below: The girls circle together to do their pre-game chants, getting pumped to win the game.

Right: Junior Carolyn Schmieg explodes off her start in the 100 backstroke at state. She placed twelfth with a time of 1:01.69. Schmieg, Kahl, senior Taylor Beynon, and eighth-grader Anneli Paulson placed eighteenth at state in the 200 yard medley relay. Schmieg was named to the All-Conference team.

Above Top: Sophomore Cameren Shuster dives into the water at the Dassel-Cokato meet, where her 400 freestyle relay team with freshmen Megan Schuler and Sydney Bruesehoff and sophomore Carolyn Thom placed sixth. The swim team had eleven regular season meets, plus conference, sections, and state. Twenty years ago, there wasn't even a team. The team wasn't formed until 2001.

Above: Freshman Karissa Ohlsen races in the 100 breaststroke at New Prague. She placed second with a time of 1:18.67, just behind Ruiz's first place time of 1:17.86. The Wildcats won the meet 127-59.

Above: Prior to the Watertown-Mayer meet, the members of the swim team huddle together. They won 108-62, with eight first place and seven second place finishes.

Right: Freshman Marisa Harvala swims the breaststroke against Mound Westonka/Holy Family, where she placed first in the 200 individual medley for junior varsity. The varsity team won 103-83, and junior varsity won 204.5-72.5. This was the first win against the team in three years. The Wildcats' overall record was 6-3.

The New Generation Rolls in with a Splash

Right: Sophomore Emma Lohman climbs onto the starting block. Lohman, Kahl, Schmieg, and eighth-grader Payton Grengs broke the school record for the 200 freestyle relay with a time of 1:43.54.

Right: Beynon competes in the 100 yard breaststroke at the season's first meet. She placed second with a time of 1:14.49. She swam the 200 IM at state, placing eighth with a time of 2:14.09, and received both All-State and All-Conference awards.

Making Waves

A Wave to the Future

Left: Senior McKinna Kahl pushes herself to finish her race. Kahl broke the school record in the 50 freestyle this year with a time of 25.23 seconds. The swim and dive team was the largest it has ever been, with 46 total members. The upperclassmen mentored the 22 middle-schoolers and seventeen freshmen, who made up the majority of the team.

Left: Members of the Waconia and Dassel-Cokato swim teams dive into the pool. Despite losing their first meet of the season, the Wildcats had a great start by matching or beating their previous times.

Left: Freshman Faith Pawelk backstrokes her way to second place in the 200 junior varsity medley relay at Hutchinson. Swimming is a unique sport because competitors sometimes compete in varsity at one meet but junior varsity at another because of changing times.

Left: Senior Harley Ruiz listens to music and stretches before the longest race, the 500 freestyle. She placed tenth in her event at True Team Sections with a time of 5:44.71. Overall, Waconia placed fourth.

Left: Freshman Megan Schuler competes at Litchfield in the 200 individual medley, which consists of 50 yards of each stroke: butterfly, backstroke, breaststroke, and freestyle. She placed third with a time of 2:45.40, and Waconia won the meet 58-41.

Far Left: Freshman Abby Larsen prepares to dive. There were only three high school divers, and they were all freshmen.

Middle: Freshman Ellen Arntz executes a back dive. Divers have to enter the water as vertically as possible. It is physically impossible to be completely vertical.

Left: Freshman Ashley Basile performs a pike. She was the highest-scoring diver this year with 153.15 points in the 1 meter 6 dive and 258 points in the 1 meter 11 dive.

Far Right: Senior Taylor Reuther, freshman Payton Sueker, and senior Stephanie Borka cradle their flyer, freshman Maude Desormeaux, at the Homecoming game. The traditional "reload" stunt is the most memorable achievement the girls accomplished this season because of the quickness and precision.

Right: Freshman Chandra Bjerke, senior Samantha Knutson, and senior Amanda Oelfke practice their vibrant cheer routine prior to the Homecoming pep fest. The girls stepped out of their sideline traditions by creating their own routine to a mix of hip-hop songs.

Right: Keeping tradition, the cheerleaders do push-ups every time the Waconia football players score. The cheerleaders cranked out a total of 561 push-ups this season.

Right: As per tradition, at every football game the cheerleaders line up tallest to shortest with their new pom-poms to salute the flag during the playing of the national anthem.

Right: Sophomore Hannah Bruins and freshman Amanda Hellerud-Schuth chant the Waconia Rouser at the freshman pep fest. The Rouser have not changed since the team started.

Right: The stunt group of Reuther, Sueker, Borka, and Oelfke practice using the old way of loading into their stunt during the Tackle Cancer Night game. Using one foot to load in is how they first learned the stunt, but they have attempted many other ways. To support Tackle Cancer Night, Sueker created traditional homemade bright pink bows.

Reloading Old Techniques

Team Mixes Traditions with the Same Old Spirit

Progress in the Points

Increase in Gymnastics Membership Improves Team Scores

Left: Junior co-captain Gabriella Hommer performs her back tuck on beam. During the season, Hommer earned her highest score on beam, a 9.25, at the Big Lake meet. She finished the season with six first place wins in the all-around.

Left: Eighth grader Kathryn Fahrenkamp casts away from the bar to complete a clear hip circle. She received her highest score on bars, an 8.6, at the section meet.

Left: Seventh grader Sydney Shea strikes a pose during her floor routine. Against Glencoe-Silver Lake, she received her highest score of the season on vault with 9 points.

Far Left: Junior co-captain Abbigail Fahrenkamp performs her half on half off twist on vault. Her favorite event was floor because she enjoyed the front tumbling. That same front tumbling earned her first place at the meet against Delano, a meet that the Wildcats won 134-129.625.

Left: Freshman Grace Edsill performs her front tuck as she dismounts off of the beam. Her highest score of the season, an 8.1, occurred at the quad meet at Watertown.

Right: Junior Madelin Dammann drives past Minneapolis South's Lexus Hughes. Dammann put up 28 points and led the team with four steals in a 99-80 victory. She was named All-Conference Honorable Mention. Below: The 'Cats try to keep Orono's Sydney Reiners from penetrating the lane.

Above: Senior Kelsey Eder attempts a shot while being double-teamed by Hutchinson, a team ranked eighth in class AAA at the time. The Tigers led 36-35 at halftime, but Waconia outshot them, sunk three more three-pointers, and outscored them by seven at the free-throw line. The Wildcats prevailed 78-67.

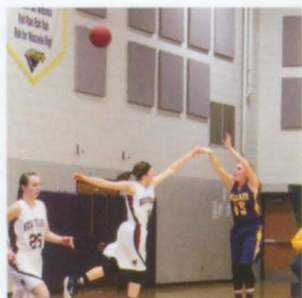

Above: Senior Anna Schmitt drives for a layup against Delano. The Wildcats defeated the Tigers 69-59 in a game where Schmitt passed Shelby Moats's record of 1,722 points to become the leading scorer in Waconia basketball history. She scored 603 points this season and was named All-Conference, one of many honors.

Right: Sophomore Tatum Johnson takes a bank shot against Holy Family. The 'Cats were 33 for 71 from the floor and made seventeen threes. They forced 24 turnovers in the 87-50 victory.

*Girls Score 2,073
Points This Season*

Going for the Three

Right: Senior Kendall Eder takes a long bomb during a home game against New Prague. She was named All-Conference Honorable Mention.

Right: Schmitt takes a jumper against Holy Family. She contributed seventeen points and dished out seven assists.

All In

Left: Schmitt tries to get the ball past Delano's Alex Wittinger. Schmitt was a Miss Basketball finalist, a McDonald's All-American candidate, and was named to both the Minnesota All-Star and the AAA All-State teams.

Left: Freshman Estelle Marker takes a shot against Holy Family. She scored 31 points this season and had seven steals.

Left: Team members proudly display the Class AAA state tournament third-place trophy. They defeated Mankato East 79-65 and ended the season with a 17-13 record. Middle: Senior Cole Peters uses his 6'7" frame to get above the rim for a one-hand dunk. He scored ten points in the game against Mankato East.

Right: Junior Joshua Rands takes a jump shot from the perimeter that was good for three in the game against Mankato East. He scored sixteen points, dished out seven assists, and had three rebounds against the Cougars.

Right: Freshman Charlie Gove sets up a play against St. Paul Johnson during the state semifinals. The Governors defeated the Wildcats 69-62. Rands scored sixteen points, and senior Oliver Smith had fifteen.

Right: Senior Gabriel Crowder scored 29 points this season. He put up seven points against Richfield and five against Hutchinson.

Right: Senior Roch Whittaker goes up for a shot against tough defense. He had a double-double against the Cougars, scoring twelve points and taking down twelve rebounds. He ended the season with 359 points and was also the team's top scorer in games against New Prague, Shakopee, and Washburn.

Right: Junior Ryan Kruchten goes high above Orono's Matthew Hirschberg during the quarterfinals of the state tournament. Kruchten finished the game with eleven points, one of four Wildcat players to finish in double figures. Waconia shot 56.3 percent from the floor and out-rebounded Orono 35-28. They defeated the Spartans 73-68 and advanced to the semifinals.

Hoop Dreams

Nothing but Net

Left: Head Coach Patrick Hayes takes his turn cutting the net following the section 6AAA championship victory. This is Hayes's fourth state tournament appearance with the Wildcats.

Left: Smith, Peters, Kruchten, and junior Joseph Kortuem celebrate the section championship following a defeat of Washburn, 56-50. This was Waconia's fourth state tournament appearance.

Far Left: Senior Avery Talton dribbles up court during a conference game against Orono. He scored 76 points this season.

Left: Rands launches a shot at the basket in the state tournament game against Orono where he averaged 50 percent from the field and scored seven points. He ended the season with 277 points. A season highlight for Rands included scoring 26 points in the game against Buffalo.

Left: Smith takes a shot during the state quarterfinals. He had fifteen points, seven rebounds, and three blocked shots. He scored 387 points this season.

Below: Peters gets above two Johnson defenders. He ended his senior season with 242 points and 194 rebounds.

Above: Senior Charles Stevenson takes a jump shot at the state tournament. He had five points in this game and scored 118 points this season.

Left: In the quarterfinals, Kortuem scored a game-high twenty points and added five boards and five assists. He and Smith were named to the 3A All-Tournament Team.

Right: Junior Gabrielle Nelson skates up the ice with the puck against the Hutchinson Tigers. She was named Most Improved Player and Hardest Worker.

Below: Sophomore Sydney Valenta gets the puck past Mound Westonka's Emma Polsny during a third period power play.

Above: Freshman Chloe McEnelly shoots against South St. Paul. She scored the Wildfire's only goal of the game in the third period on the power play. Megan Menzuber had the assist. The game ended in a 1-1 tie. McEnelly had seventeen points this season, scoring ten goals and getting seven assists. She was named All-Conference Honorable Mention.

Above: Junior Makayla Williams shoots the puck against the Prior Lake Lakers. This was a scoreless game until the third period when the Wildfire put in three goals. Goalie Alexandra Hartmann stopped all twenty shots on goal.

Right: Senior Mackenzie Kratch moves the puck up the ice. She earned twenty points this season, scoring nine goals and getting eleven assists. Kratch was named All-Conference Honorable Mention.

Girls Play with Fire in Their Hearts

A Little Cooperation

"With Holy Family being a rival team, it's expected to be awkward, but all Holy Family girls are awesome."

-Senior Meghan Burmeister

"I love playing with Holy Family girls. They're all great friends of mine. It's also fun to know people on that side of the rivalry."

-Junior Alexandra Hartmann

One Wild Ride

Left: Hartmann catches the puck, saving a shot. This season, she spent 1419 minutes in the net and had a .918 save percentage. She was also named All-Conference.

Left: Kratch fires high against Mound Westonka during an away game at Thaler Arena. She scored the final goal of the game in the second period, and the Wildfire won 5-2.

Left: Williams celebrates after a goal against Hutchinson. She scored twice during the game, helping the Wildfire earn a 5-2 victory in the final game of the regular season.

Left: Kratch and Valenta hug after a goal against Orono while junior Allyson Marrs skates up to join them. Valenta and Marrs both put up goals in the second period, and McEnelly put up one in the third. The Wildfire and Spartans skated to a 3-3 tie.

Left: Marrs shoots against Bloomington Jefferson. The teams faced off twice during the regular season with each team going 1-1. In the opening round of section play, the teams battled into overtime when Holy Family's Abby Hanscom scored the game-winner. The 4-3 victory was the Wildfire's first ever playoff win. They lost to Eden Prairie in the second round of section play, finishing 11-12-4

Far Left: Valenta and Marrs try to punch the puck past Hopkin's Olivia Bizal.

Middle: McEnelly and Hanscom pressure Mound Westonka's goaltender as she falls on the puck, making the save. Valenta and Holy Family's Molly Garin each scored in the third period, but the Wildfire lost 2-4.

Right: Burmeister was chosen as a team co-captain, along with Hanscom.

Working Overtime

Right: Senior Mathew Fulkerson battles Holy Family's John Peterson for control of the puck during a face-off. Fulkerson had 30 points this season, scoring ten goals and getting twenty assists. He was named All-Conference.

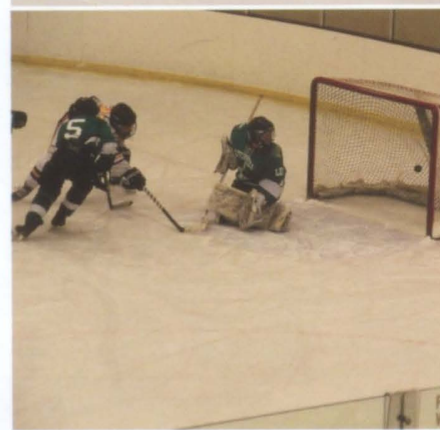

Right: Senior forward Joseph Scarrella handles the puck. He had a key assist in the Wildcats' 10-6 victory over Chaska and was given the Wildcat Award.

Right: Senior defenseman Brady Kamish looks to break out of the defensive zone. Against Chaska, he scored a goal and had an assist. He also had two assists in the 11-0 victory over Becker-Big Lake.

Right: Senior goalie Ian Schrup covers the puck against Bloomington Kennedy. He made 33 saves in the game. Junior Adam Nichols scored two goals. Fulkerson and juniors Shane Reuben and Mitchell Weiland had the assists.

Right: Sophomore Nicholas Benson gets the puck past Litchfield's Dylan Lemke. Benson scored the game-winning goal 36 seconds into overtime. The 'Cats defeated the Dragons 8-7. This season, Waconia won three games in overtime.

Right: Sophomore Ian Miller and Nichols try to get the puck past New Prague's Conner Wagner during a home game. Miller and Benson were named Rookies of the Year. Nichols was named MVP. Middle: In the second period of the game against Litchfield-Dassel Cokato, senior Collin Reus passes the puck to Miller who shot and scored. Reus and Nichols had the assists. Far Right: Junior Nicholas Molinari moves the puck out of the defensive zone. He was named All-Conference Honorable Mention.

The Wildcats beat Chaska in overtime in the opening round of section tournament play before losing to Breck. Waconia finished the season 7-16-3.

Above: Junior Shane Reuben handles the puck near Kennedy goalie Jimmy Mrozek. Reuben had 21 points this season, scoring ten goals and getting eleven assists.

Boys Battle the Clock, Win Three Games in Overtime

Check It Out

Above: Senior Emily Frey and sophomore Halle Bodem hit their first moves of the high kick dance, "Mad for Alice" at the Waconia Invitational. The junior and senior members, along with the coaches, choreographed the dance. Throughout the season, members critiqued the team's performances and made changes as needed.

A Classic Story, Famous Musical Inspire Dancers

"Alice in Wonderland"

"I love this theme because it's something different compared to other dances."

-Freshman
Morgan Hughes

"I enjoy this theme because it's different than any other year and keeps our audience entertained."

-Senior
Samantha Gerdowsky

Step by Step

Left: Peitz and junior Katelind Keating leap into the beginning of their jazz dance, "Defying Gravity." The musical Wicked inspired the theme, which was chosen by jazz coach Jenny Peitz. Kennedy Peitz and junior Melanie Bloudek choreographed the dance in the fall, and the team refined the choreography throughout the season.

Left: Bloudek received the Most Dedicated Dancer award, an award given to a dancer who shows outstanding commitment to dance and to the team. She has been dancing for fourteen years and has been a Lakette for five years.

Left: Freshman Sydney Port received the Rookie of the Year award. She trained previously at Dance Arts Centre where she studied ballet and other dance forms.

Left: Peitz received the Best Leader award. To receive this award, a dancer must keep the team members focused. She was selected to participate on the Minnesota All-State Jazz Dance Team.

Left: Pannier hits a perfect arabesque, a ballet move in which a dancer extends one leg behind her while supporting herself on the other leg. This year's jazz costumes were a teal base with lace overlay.

Far Left: Members of the jazz team begin their first turn set during the section competition at Mound Westonka, where they placed fourth. Center: Senior Emily Shaw, Pannier, Bloudek, and Peitz were named All-Conference.

Left: The kick team finishes its dance with a teacup formation, a pose to illustrate the "Alice in Wonderland" theme. New hats and other accessories embellished this year's high kick costume.

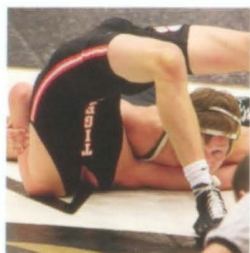

Far right: Sophomore Garrett Vos goes head to head with his rival from Scott West at the state tournament, where he finished fifth. "I finally got recognized for all my hard work," he said.

Right: Sophomore Justin Schultz pins his Tiger opponent while looking at the referee to confirm his win. He placed second at the East Ridge Ruckus tournament and ended his season by placing third at sections.

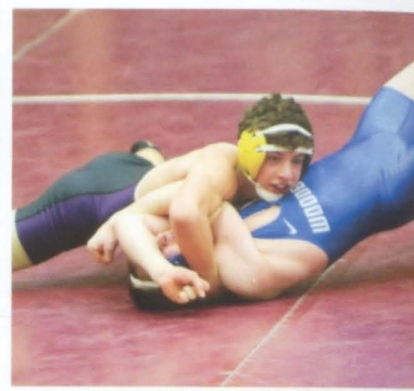

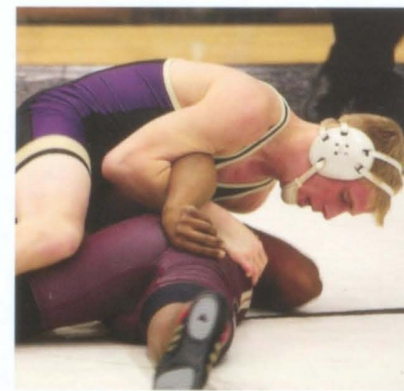

Right: Junior Logan Scholla uses his hand to gain more control of his opponent at a dual in St. Peter. He pinned his opponent and contributed to the team's 52-13 victory.

Right: Senior Zachary Christians uses his upper body strength and attempts to cradle his opponent during the team semifinals at sections. The Wildcats fell to Scott West 25-39 and finished the season 17-3.

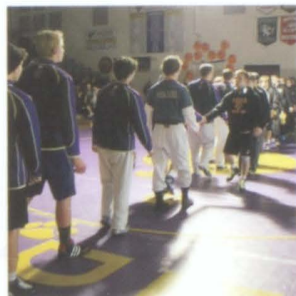

Right: Green works his opponent's arm to get the pin for the Wildcats. "This is the best team I have been a part of in a long time, and I am proud to be one of the leaders throughout the season," he said.

Just Wrestle

Get in the Zone

Left: The team shakes hands after defeating the Hutchinson Tigers 39-26. This was the first time in team history that the Wildcats defeated the Tigers.

Left: Green, Wagener, and Vos smile after qualifying for the state tournament. For the first time in team history, all three qualifiers placed in the top five.

History-Making Season

Far Left: Junior Jedrek Waligoski works a move on his opponent. He placed fifth at sections, ending his season with a win.

Below: Wagener grabs the leg of his opponent and tries to take him down at the section tournament. He was ranked sixth in Class AA.

Below: Senior tri-captain Mason Hemze traps his opponent in a headlock and tries to keep him flat. Hemze won the match with a pin, earning his 100th victory. "I just wanted to squeeze as hard as I could to get that pin and to achieve one of the goals I have had for my entire wrestling career," he said.

Above: Junior Joshua Reich attempts to pin his opponent by stretching his body out and holding him down. Reich worked hard this season and finished third at sections.

Equestrian Team

Team of Three Ties for Sixth Place in Minnesota High School Equestrian Association Competition

Above: Junior Lauren Zabell and her horse Real Lonesome were named 2014 MHSEA Individual Reserve Champion in Equitation/Horsemanship and Pleasure - WSCA. Zabell and her horse also competed in Pinto Horse Association competitions.

Alpine Ski

Two Students Compete as Part of Cooperative

Above: Freshman Katherine Krupski skies down the hill as she tries to gain speed. Krupski is one of two Waconia High School students who participated on the alpine ski team, a cooperative between WHS and Mound Westonka High School.

Above: Freshman Emily Rud rushes gracefully down the hill. Her favorite memory from this season was when she skied her first race and placed fifth in the junior varsity race. After placing third at the River Bluff Invitational, the team competed at sections at Afton Alps on February 5.

Boys Swimming

One Member from WHS, Four from Clearwater are Part of Watertown-Mayer-Waconia-Delano Team

Left: Coach Drew Sodey began the season as an assistant coach but became the head coach midway through the season after the previous head coach transferred jobs. The team competed at the Wright County Conference meet on February 14 and finished fourth.

Right: Freshman Adam Bartell competes in the 200 freestyle and the 500 freestyle. He is the only Waconia High School student who competes on the team. Clearwater Middle School students Abe Stroschein, Eric Schmieg, Bryce Borland, and Quinn Wambecke are also members of this team.

1995

It's in the details and the cold air, too,
A sense of excitement and starting anew.
But after hats are tossed and cake is given,
And all the cars from the lot are driven,
We carry with us the joy that we've found,

That which is in our spirit
and all around...

Living in the now can be easy to do, but we soon forget about the world outside of our bubble. Amidst the posts of our opinions, our problems, and our locations, we begin to focus on the now that surrounds us and the goal of sharing it with other people.

But that's not what the now is about.

The now is about living in the moment, but it's about living in the moment with our friends and our families. It's about enjoying what we have, while we have it, instead of leaving it until later. It's about making sure that others are enjoying the now with you and that, together, the future can become the now.

The now that is happening today is more precious than any of us can comprehend, but the now that is just around the corner may be the best now of all.

2015

Jostens Incorporated of Minneapolis, Minnesota, published the 2014-2015 Waconia High School yearbook, which consisted of 160 pages printed on 100# glossy paper. Approximately 740 books were shipped. The cover was designed by Lydia Weinand, Hannah Kilian, Molly Klima, Laura Grimm, Elizabeth Kern, and Stephanie Borka. The yearbook was completed by students in the Introduction to Yearbook course and by extracurricular students. Students were advised by Megan Gregor and Melissa Weinand. The staff would like to thank Sherri Loney at Jostens Publishing; Lynn Laumann Photography; Taylor Hubbard Photography; VIP Photography; Jennifer Meyer; Meghan Burmeister and Alexandra Hartmann; Greg Korteum; and all other students, faculty, staff, and parents who contributed images for the book; Mark Fredericksen; Dave Kuehn; Jill Johnson; and office personnel Dianne Breyer, Lori Schwartz, Judy Rademacher, Michelle Doerrler, and Mary Ellen Timmers. The yearbook staff would like to thank you for your resources, time, patience, and support while this book was in production.
