

Southview Elementary School Parent and Family Engagement Policy

Title I schools are required to engage the parents and families of Title I students during the development or revision of this policy through meaningful consultation. This consultation occurs when conversations are held before decisions are made, which ensures joint decision making and policy development.

Building School Capacity for Involvement

To make sure there is effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership with parents and the community, each Title I school and district will do the following to improve student achievement:

1. Provide to parents of Title children assistance in understanding the State academic standards, the state and local academic assessments, the parent and family engagement rights of Title I, how to monitor their child’s progress, and work with their child’s teachers to improve the academic success of their child.

Discretionary School Parental Involvement Policy Components

Southview Elementary School parent and family engagement policy may include additional paragraphs listing and describing other discretionary activities that the school district, in consultation with its parents, chooses to undertake to build parents' capacity for involvement in the school and school system to support their children's academic achievement. These may include the following discretionary activities:

1. Involve parents in the development of training for teachers, principals and other educators to improve the effectiveness of that training.
2. Provide necessary literacy training for parents from Title I, Part A, funds, if the school district has exhausted all other reasonably available sources of funding for that training.
3. Pay reasonable and necessary expenses associated with parental involvement activities, including transportation and child care costs, to enable parents to participate in school-related meetings and training sessions.
4. Train parents to enhance the involvement of other parents.
5. In order to maximize parental involvement and participation in their children's education, arrange school meetings at a variety of times, or conduct in-home conferences between teachers or other educators, who work directly with participating children, with parents who are unable to attend those conferences at school.
6. Adopt and implement model approaches to improving parental involvement.
7. Establish a district parent advisory council to provide advice on all matters related to parental involvement in Title I, Part A, programs.
8. Develop appropriate roles for community-based organizations and businesses, including faith-based organizations, in parental involvement activities.
9. Provide other reasonable support for parental involvement activities identified under section 1116 as parents may request.

2019-2020 School Year

Southview Elementary School is committed to the goal of providing quality education for every child in this district. We want to establish partnerships with parents and with the community. Everyone gains if school and home work together to support high achievement of our children. We can't do this job alone. Parents and families play an extremely important role as children's first teachers. Their support for their children and for the school is critical to their children's success at every step along the way.

Part I. Description of how the District and School will Implement Required Components

1. Southview Elementary School will engage parents and families who have Title I students in developing/revising the district and school policy.

Part II. Description of the Shared Responsibilities for High Student Academic Achievement

Southview Elementary School will jointly develop with Title I parents a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement to meet the State academic standards. The compact should:

1. Describe the curriculum and instruction that helps their student meet the state standards, identify where their child is performing and discuss ways the parent can support their child's education at home and at school.
2. Talk about the importance of the teachers and parents communicating on an ongoing basis at a minimum:
 - a. Conduct a parent-teacher conference in elementary schools, at least annually, during which time the compact is discussed as it relates to the individual child.

- b. Provide frequent reports to parents on their children’s progress.
- c. Provide information on how parents can contact staff and staff can best contact parents, opportunities to volunteer and participate in their child’s class, and observation of classroom activities.
- d. Make sure that two-way meaningful communication between family members and school staff is addressed and when at all possible, is in a language the parents and family members can understand.
